To Whom It May Concern

Re: Homecare Workers United Union (FEIU)

I have a regular 9 to 5 job as an Executive Assistant with a company and only take care of a special needs woman an average of six hours a month. For these six hours, representatives of the Homecare Workers Union have:

- Sent 5 or more mailings soliciting me to join their Union
- Stopped by my house two times for the same purpose
- Called on the phone several times for the same purpose.

My husband has answered the door and phone – why? – because I'm not there; I'm working at my regular job. On one of these house visits, the Union rep wrote me a note to tell me that if I signed up with the Union, they wouldn't bother me anymore.

I consider all of the above harassment by the Union. If I worked 40 hours a week as a caretaker, their strong-armed tactics would turn me off and I wouldn't join on principle. Being that I only work six hours per month, makes the whole thing ridiculous!
